In the name of God, Amen. I, Daniel Curry, of the County of Cabell and State of Virginia, being of sound mind, and exercising my power of reason, but weak in body and considering the uncertainty of life, make this my last Will and Testament, to-wit:

I give to my son-in-law, Adolphaus A. Neulon, and Abagain Neuloe, wife of said Adolphaeus A. Neuloe, the upper end of my tract of land lying on Big Buffalo Creek, down to a large white oak at the upper end of a small bottom on the east side of the main creek, and just below the mouth of the Division Fork to run from said white oak a south-east course to the back line on the east side and on the west side of Buffalo Creek from said white oak a straight line running up the point of the hill and nearly a west course, to the back line the above named land is to stand good for its payment, to the man from whom I purchased. The lower end of my tract of land on said Buffalo Creek, all that lies below the above described Division line, I give to my son Hiram Curry. The land that I own on Loop Creek, in Fayette County I wish to be sold, and the money to go to the payment of the land on Buffalo Creek, in Cabell. All my other property I give to my daughter, Nancy Pines, my son William Curry and my son, Thomas Curry, to be equally divided between them, after my funeral expenses and debts are paid. And in case there should be anything left after paying my funeral expenses and debts, I give to my daughter Nancy Pines my son William Curry, and my son Thomas Curry one dollar each, to be paid to them by Hiram Curry and Adolphaeus A. Neuloe out of my Buffalo land.

In Testimony whereof I set my hand and seal this 20th day of August, 1842.
